Club Ethos for Sole Bay Juniors FC

- Our Purpose
- Our club gives young people in the communities of Reydon, Southwold and surrounding areas the opportunity to play and to enjoy football. By providing coaching, training and competitive football in a welcoming environment, we help young people develop as players and as people.
- Our Values
- We try to live up to our values in everything we do. They are:
- Together - we support our players, our teams, our community and each other
- Enjoyment - we have fun and enjoy all aspects of football
- Sportsmanship - we respect the rules, the referee, our opposition and the club
- Spirit - we give our best on the pitch but winning is not everything
- Our Vision
- We will be a well-run, friendly and respected junior football club that helps young people discover and develop their footballing potential. We give young people a chance to learn new skills, make new friends and develop as people, so that our club makes a positive contribution at the heart of our community.
